Ellison Bros.

"Cherry Red" pitched 8 innings for Cantillon's men at Meridian, Miss., one day this week, and won the game 10 to 7. "Cherry" is making good with Cantillon, although he has had a hard time bearing the many jokes and tricks that the regulars put off on new recruits. "Cherry" will no doubt be used in the game with Memphis next Thursday.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Loud attire naturally speaks for itself.

Some men are almost as contrary as some women.

The proper time to do a thing is when it should be done.

Some men are as easily rattled as others are hard to shake.

Even watered stocks have been known to take a drop too much.

Money talks—and the chap who has it is usually a man of few words.

One kind of a hypocrite is a man who pretends to be busy when he isn't.

Nothing ventured nothing gained—but you may be able to keep what you have.

There seems to be no place like home for most of the charity that begins there.

A man never hires a brass band to herald his coming out at the little end of the horn.

And the man who tells tiresome stories usually manages to finish them in spite of interruptions.

How about the eternal fitness of things when a young man sows wild oats and reaps a grass widow?

Ira Green left Friday night for Jackson, Ala., to accept a position with the Jackson Veneer Company, of that city.

A Small Matter Here.

Editor Brice, of the News-Banner, at Union City, came over one day last week to spend a day in all-town. In his Friday issue he tells of his visit here, but it is evident that he had a green guide or deliberately looked through the wrong end of the telescope.

Among other things he says: "We were shown the 200 acres that our fellow citizen, Lexie S. Parks had bought, a tract just south of the plat-tan tract. Mr. Parks told us Saturday, when we were telling him about having seen 'his land' 'That is no longer mine, I sold it late yesterday afternoon.' On being asked how much he made out of the deal, he replied 'I'm ashamed to say. We made $8,200 out of 'em and had the land less than 24 hours.' So all the smart fellows don't live at Hickman. The new town is between the old town and the Memphis & Gulf railroad."

The Courier doesn't see any reason for Mr. Brice exercising himself over the fact that Lexie Parks made a few thousand in a business transaction in Hickman—its a common-place affair with us, and doesn't excite our folks. And for the same reason Mr. Parks should not let his conscience hurt him nor blush to state the facts. Its the fact here—in fact everywhere, except just ordinary towns. If there is any idle capital in Union City, the owners might profit by Mr. Parks' example. And you have learned yourself that 'his is a city of golden opportunities. Come back again, friend, and we'll give you another shock from the live wire.

We will deliver you fancy Whipor-will peas in any quantity from five bushels up at $2.60 per bushel f. o. b. Hickman.—Haguewood-O'Daniel Co Rutherford, Tenn. 2tc

Ready by May 1st.

Pres. Latta, of the C. M. & G. R. R., and his associate, Mr. Rice, were in this city yesterday on business.

Mr. Latta told a Courier reporter that they were getting along nicely with the construction work on the new road, and that they hoped to have trains running into Hickman by May 1st—just a month hence. In order to take care of the Menger Box Co., which has a miniature railroad system of their own standing in the Hickman yards waiting to be carried to the timber section over this line, Mr. Latta is rushing the work.

The opening of the new railroad will be an event very worthy of some kind of celebration, and we should make a demonstration that will show that we appreciate the road and co-operate with Pres. Latta and his staff. Mr. Latta has worked hard to consummate this undertaking; it has required energy, patience and persistence, but he has succeeded admirably. He is with us heart and soul in the up-building of Hickman, and is a good man to have on the "firing line."

Let's show our appreciation.

There is a movement on foot for the city to buy some bloodhounds for the running down of criminals. This would prove a good thing as it would not only trace criminals but the knowledge that there were bloodhounds here would serve to keep down crime.

Chicken Bones for Children.

Monday morning marketers learned through a sign in the delicatessen store window that the proprietor had choice chicken bones for sale.

"For soup?" some one asked.

"No; babies," he said. "It is not easy to find a nutritious bone for the baby to gnaw. What he wants is a drumstick of a young, juicy fowl. It must be fresh and free from tang. Even the family that prides itself on setting a good table may buy a chicken whose drumstick is too old for the child. Every Saturday I cook wholesome celery-fry roasters. Their bones, when stripped, make excellent tooth sharpeners for the babies, and any mother of a fretful brood can have them for next to nothing."

Our Doctors.

"The late Count Tolstol loathed physicians," said, at a dinner in Washington, a Russian diplomat.

"You remember how Tolstol ridiculed physicians in 'War and Peace'?" Well, I heard him ridicule three of them to their faces over a vegetarian dinner at Yasnaya Polyana.

"Physicians," he said, bitterly, looking up from a plate of lentils, "may be divided into two classes—the radicals who kill you, and the conservatives who let you die."
